Beverly L. Moore, RN, CS Joins the Ranks of Leading Professionals

Beverly L. Moore has devoted her career to counseling people, most recently the Alzheimer caregiver

QUINCY, MA. January 26, 2010 /Cambridge Who's Who/ -- Beverly L. Moore, Owner and President of Sweet Grapes, Inc., has been recognized by Cambridge Who's Who for demonstrating dedication, leadership and excellence in counseling services.

As owner and president of Sweet Grapes, Inc. Ms. Moore is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the StilMee Coaching Service including securing contracts and grants and providing business coaching for all licensed StilMee coaches. She is the owner of StilMee, the leader in Alzheimer coaching; a company serving caregivers with education and support individually in their home in Eastern Massachusetts and northeastern Rhode Island, and by telephone anywhere in the continental United States. She is a frequent presenter in New England on the practical aspects of Alzheimer care. In August 2009, her book Matters of the Mind...and the Heart Meeting the Challenges of Alzheimer Care, was published by Strategic Book Publishing in New York. Ms. Moore has been a nurse for 50 (fifty) years, 40 (forty) years in psychiatry, and in family therapy for 27 (twenty seven) years. She taught 2 (two) courses in a graduate program in Family Counseling; Emotional Disturbances and Behavior Disorders in Young Children, and Counseling Adolescents.

Beverly attributes her success to persistence and faith in God's support of her business mission; easing Alzheimer care through education and support.

A graduate of Eastern Nazarene College in Quincy, MA, Ms. Moore received her Bachelor's Degree in Psychology in 1979 and her Master's in Family Counseling in 1982. She is a certified clinical specialist in adult mental health and psychiatric nursing and is certified in Family System by the Boston Family Institute. She is a member of the Cambridge Chamber of Commerce, the South Shore Senior Network and the Downtown Women's Club of Boston. She is a Phi Beta Kappa Society and National Honor Society recipient. Ms. Moore's goal is to license StilMee coaches in other areas of the country and empower them to grow their business.
